

KSU's American Democracy Project, Office of Diversity & Inclusion, and University Operations presents

Global Recording Artist & Activist

Emmanuel Jal

“Youth as Global Changemakers”

Jal, a former child soldier in Sudan, has released three studio albums, including his international hit “War Child.” His latest single “We Want Peace” will be featured on an upcoming album. His music played a role in the award-winning documentary “God Grew Tired of Us” and the Amnesty International Campaign to Save Darfur. Jal’s memoir “War Child” and the full-length documentary of the same name have received critical acclaim. The documentary won 12 prestigious film festival awards.
